

BOY BURGLARS CAUSE PANIC.

They Plunder Downtown Stores and Astonish Magistrate and Police by Their Tales When They Suffer Capture.

CAPT. O'REILLY PUZZLED.

Until Conviction of One and Arrest of Price and Donegan, People in Oak Street Precinct Lived in
State of Alarm.

The arrest of John Price, fourteen years old, of No. 290 Front street, and George Donegan, fifteen, of the same address, has, according to the police of the Oak street station, brought to an end a series of burglaries that during the past two months have caused no little trouble.

These youngsters, with another boy, William McCarthy, twelve years old, of No. 287 Front street, found guilty of burglary in the first degree in the Children's Court, and said to be the culprits who have been terrorizing Capt. O'Reilly's precinct.

The Captain was puzzled. Neither he nor his watchful men, could discover who the burglars were. Reports were abroad that a gang of thieves had taken advantage of the attention being given to gamblers, policy men and other violators of the law and had settled down in his part of the town.

Young McCarthy, Price and Donegan broke into a furnishing store at No. 11 South street Thursday night. Policeman Fletcher, of the Oak Street Station, appeared and the two latter boys ran away, forgetting to warn McCarthy, who was in the store handing out anything he could lay his hands on. Fletcher arrested McCarthy.

When put on trial in the Children's Court, McCarthy, Price and Donegan, and later in the day they were arrested at No. 63 Main street, Brooklyn. Their arrest revealed an astounding system of

When arraigned before Justice Olmsted they astonished the Judge by relating the way they broke into small shops, forced their way into big buildings, and carried off treasures with doors of iron. Their booty amounted in value to hundreds of dollars.

These are the places the boys declare they robbed: Furnishing store at No. 113 South street; and store at No. 44 South street; furnishing store at No. 5 South street; leather house at No. 5 Spruce street; furnishing store at No.

173 William street.

BRITISH BRAVELY
FOUGHT MULLAH.

ADEN, Arabia, Oct. 25.—Details of the fighting in Somaliland on Oct. 6, between the British expeditionary force and the followers of the Mad Mullah, show that a more serious disaster only was averted, by the splendid example of the few white officers. As it was, the British force lost a Maxim gun and seventy men killed, while sixty-two of their enemies, dead, were counted close to the firing

On Oct. 6 the Mullah's forces were reported about a mile ahead, and within half an hour, while the British were advancing in single file through a dense jungle, the enemy charged the British right flank.

In the meantime the transport got mixed up with the firing line, which was thrown into confusion, and a Maxim was rushed and captured, as were many

The disorder spread to the gun teams, which were driven back. Capt. Angus was killed while serving a gun. Col. Cobbe, with a single Somali sergeant, continued serving a Maxim, and then Col. Swayne, the British Commissioner in the Sudan and commander of the expedition, led a splendid charge, checked the Mullah's forces and recaptured some of the transport. But he was unable to recover the Maxim.

The enemy, later, tried to get away with the captured camels, but Col. Swayne took out three companies of men and fought a sharp fight recovered the majority of them and carried away the bodies of his dead.

morning and went direct to the Naval

To pass away the time the men lounged around during the forenoon and witnessed a seamanship drill by the midshipmen aboard the practice ship Chesapeake and the monitor Terror.

All of Dickinson's prayers are in a bad condition save Snyder, who has a bad knee, which he injured in the Prince. Wednesday, but he played part of the game. The Middies had quite a squad of cripples in the hospital and the team was changed considerably for to-day's contest.

First Half.

In the first half of fifteen minutes Dickenson scored six points, Stuart making a touchdown, and Stanton kicked the goal. Navy had possession of the ball for the first part of the half, but lost on a fumble. They never recovered it. Time was called with the leather in Dickinson's possession about midfield.

Score, First Half—Dickinson, 6; Annapolis, 0.

The Final Score—Dickinson, 6;
Navy, 0.

LEHIGH PLAYS
NEW YORK UNIVERSITY

The Line-Up.
	Positions.	Leigh.
New York.	L. K.	Bush
Lippincott	L. K.	Geer
Stanton	L. G.	Waters
Priedberg	Centre.	Barnard
Lyon	G.	Johnson
Keilly	R. T.	Landefeld
Council	R. E.	Dornin
McDowd	Q. B.	L. Farabaugh
Snyder	L. H. A.	Farabaugh (Capt.)
Lease	P.	Lease
Line (Capt.)	F. B.	Lease

(Special to the Evening World.)

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Oct. 25.—Bright sunshine brought out an attendance of 2,000 at this afternoon's football game. The eleven from New York University came on to the gridiron first. They are ten pounds heavier than the brown and white. The betting was even, the New York money being quickly covered.

broke into a furnishing store at No. 113 South street Thursday night. Policeman Fletcher, of the Oak Street Station appeared and the two latter boys ran away, forgetting to warn McCarthy, who was in the store handing out anything he could lay his hands on.
Fletcher arrested McCarthy.
When put on trial in the Children's Court McCarthy named his accomplices and later in the day they were arrested.

At No. 63 Main street, Brooklyn, their arrest revealed an astounding system of organization that with McCarthy they had committed twenty burglaries in the Oak Street Precinct.

When arraigned before Justice Olmsted they astonished the Judge by revealing that they had broken into small shops, forced their way into big buildings and even into factories with doors of iron. Their booty amounted in value to hundreds of dollars.

The boys declared the boys declare they robbed Kurlp's store at No. 113

South street; candy store at No. 444
Pearl street; furnishing store at No. 16
South street; leather house at No. 5
Spruce street; furnishing store at No.
173 William street.

BRITISH BRAVELY

FOUGHT MULLAH.

ADEN, Arabia, Oct. 25.—Details of the fighting in Somaliland on Oct. 6, between the British expeditionary force and the followers of the Mad Mullah, show that a more serious disaster only was averted, by the splendid example of the few white officers. As it was, the British force lost a Maxim gun and seventy men killed, while sixty-two of their enemies, dead, were counted close to the firing line.

On Oct. 6 the Mullah's forces were reported about a mile ahead, and within

In the meantime the transport got mixed up with the firing line, which was thrown into confusion, and a Maxim was rushed and captured, as were many camels. Major Phillips was shot while gallantly attempting to rally his men. Lieut. Everett was wounded while

The disorder spread to the gun teams, which were driven back. Capt. Angus was killed while serving a gun. Col. Cobbe, with a single Somali sergeant, continued serving a Maxim, and then Col. Swayne, the British Commissioner in Somaliland and commander of the expedition, led a splendid charge, checked the Mullah's forces and recaptured some of the transport. But he was unable to recover the Maxim.

The enemy, later, tried to get away with the captured camels, but Col. Swayne took out three companies of troops, and after a sharp fight recovered the majority of them and carried away the bodies of his dead.

morning and went direct to the Naval Academy gymnasium.

To pass away the time the men lounged around during the forenoon and

All of Dickinson's players are in good condition save Snyder who has a bad knee, which he injured in the Prince of Wales game Wednesday, but he played part of the game. The Middies had quite a squad of cripples in the hospital and the team was changed considerably for the contest.

First Half.
In the first half of fifteen minutes Dickenson scored six points, Stuart making a touchdown, and Stanton kicked the goal. Navy had possession of the ball for the first part of the half, but lost on a fumble. They never recovered it. Time was called with the leather in Dickinson's possession about midfield.

LEHIGH PLAYS
NEW YORK UNIVERSITY.

The Line-Up.
New York.	Positions.	Lehigh.
Lippincott	L. E.	Bush
Opp	L. T.	Geor
Stones	L. G.	Waters
St. Louis	C. G.	Barrill
Lyons	L. G.	Johansen
Kelly	R. T.	Landefeld
Counell	R. E.	Dornin
McDowd	L. B.	L. Farabaugh
Snyder	H. A.	Farabaugh (Capt.)
Craper	H. H.	Krause
Lane (Capt.)	F. B.	Torrey

(Special to the Evening World.)

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Oct. 25.—Bright sunshine brought out an attendance of 5,000 at this afternoon's football game. The eleven from New York University came on to the gridiron first. They are ten pounds heavier than the browns and white. The betting was even, the New York money being quickly covered.

